

IT IS READY TO SIGN.

The World's Fair Bill Passes the Senate.

ONLY ONE AMENDMENT IS ADOPTED.

And That Provides for a Naval Display in New York Harbor to Which Different Nations Will Be Invited to Send Fleets—The House Considers in the Senate Amendment and the Bill Is Now Ready for the President's Signature.

WASHINGTON, City, April 22.—The world's fair bill was passed by the senate Monday by a vote of 43 to 13, after a discussion continued for five hours and participated in by the ablest members of the senate. The amendment to the house bill proposed by the senate committee was divided—the first part, relating to a naval review, was adopted by a majority of one, and the second part, providing for the unveiling of the statue of Queen Isabella, and for the celebration of the sale of intoxicating liquors within the limits of the exposition. All of them were rejected.

The naval review will take place in New York harbor and the nations of the world will be invited to send their fleets to participate in it.

Ready for the President.

WASHINGTON, City, April 22.—The house Tuesday concurred in the senate amendments to the world's fair bill, and the bill having passed both houses it goes to the president for his signature.

CAPITAL CULLINGS.

As to Safety Appliances on Railways.—WASHINGTON, City, April 22.—J. Warren Coe, attorney for the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company, of Philadelphia, and J. E. Longridge, a member of the company, made an argument Monday before the house committee on railways and canals on a bill introduced by Mr. Flower to regulate railway appliances. The bill requires automatic brakes and couplers. The speaker of the house, Mr. Cannon, said that the bill was a good one, but that it was not a good one, because it required the trainmen of day, and night, to be on duty, and that it was a dangerous duty. The speaker said that some plans for automatic brakes and couplers were being made, and that he would leave the bill open for improvement.

The Overflow in Louisiana.

WASHINGTON, City, April 22.—In accordance with the request of Representative Coleman of Louisiana, Secretary of the Interior, Mr. John D. Brown, of Louisiana, has been appointed to investigate the overflow in Louisiana. Mr. Brown is a member of the committee on the overflow in Louisiana. He is a member of the committee on the overflow in Louisiana. He is a member of the committee on the overflow in Louisiana.

House Committee on Judiciary.

WASHINGTON, City, April 22.—The question of appointing a bill to the house provided for the election of senators by the direct vote of the people of the state, came before the judiciary committee of the house, and after some discussion it was decided to let the matter rest on the table until the senate takes action on it. This was done partly as a matter of courtesy to the senate. The committee on the judiciary of the house of Texas, by Mr. C. C. Johnson, of Texas, introduced a bill for the purpose of amending the constitution of that state so as to give the senate the right to elect senators.

Ordered to Proceed to Sea.

WASHINGTON, City, April 22.—Orders have been issued at the navy department directing that the United States ship Albatross, now at Norfolk, proceed to sea on Saturday next on a inspection trip. She will remain at sea several days, and on May 10 she will arrive at Baltimore, Md., where a commission will be held to receive her. The ship is a new one, and is a very fine one. She is a very fine one. She is a very fine one.

Mrs. Randall Returns Thanks.

WASHINGTON, City, April 22.—Mrs. Randall is about to leave for her home in New York, and she has received from the people of this city a very warm welcome. She has been very kind to the people of this city, and she has been very kind to the people of this city. She has been very kind to the people of this city, and she has been very kind to the people of this city.

The Western Union and Warrenton.

WASHINGTON, City, April 22.—The government has decided to purchase the Western Union Telegraph Company for $10,000,000. The company is a very fine one, and it is a very fine one. It is a very fine one. It is a very fine one.

President Grants Skip Out.

MINNEAPOLIS, April 22.—A dispatch from La Crosse, Wis., to the Journal says that W. H. Graves, president of the Farmers' and Merchants' Bank of La Crosse, Wis., has skipped. His wife and child have also gone. It is known that he has been in the bank for some time, and it is expected that an investigation will show a bad state of affairs.

Hill Introduced in the Senate.

WASHINGTON, City, April 22.—Among the bills introduced in the senate are the following: By Sherman—For the creation of additional barracks at the military college, at a cost of $75,000. By Gibson—For the prevention of adulteration and misbranding of drugs and for the prevention of poisonous or injurious adulterations.

Drowned While in a Fit.

GREAT BARRINGTON, Mass., April 22.—Joe Teasing, of Sarsfield, while fishing in Spectacle pond Sunday night with two companions was seized with a fit, fell backward from the boat and was drowned. The body was recovered Monday.

DIED OF HIS WOUNDS.

Capt. Couch, the Oklahoma Boomer, Called to the Unknown. GUTHRIE, I. T., April 22.—Capt. Couch, the noted Oklahoma boomer is dead. He lived fighting for Oklahoma. He died fighting for the part of it which he believed belonged to him. After the bill had passed congress providing for the opening of Oklahoma to settlement he secured a contract from the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railroad to build a switch from the main line to the proposed site of Oklahoma City. He was superintending this work when the governor of the bill went into effect. May 1, 1890. He stopped from the railway right of way onto a choice claim adjoining the town site.

The Shooting of Capt. Couch.

His presence in the territory at that hour made him a "boomer" and from then until the day he received the wound that caused his death he had been quarrelling with a contestant, J. C. Adams, formerly of Springfield, Mo. April 4 he was fencing his claim when Adams ordered him to desist. Couch refused, and Adams attacked him with a club. Couch wrenched the club from his hands, and Adams then picked up his rifle. Couch struggled with him and gained possession of the gun. Then Adams drew his revolver, but Couch had the drop on him and forced him to throw away his weapon. Adams then retired, but appeared soon afterwards with another rifle and commenced firing on Couch, who beat a retreat. He turned once to fire and as he did so received a bullet in the chest.

His Wound—Said to Be.

The doctor's delayed examination, however, proved serious, and the veteran boomer died at 5 o'clock Monday morning. The feeling against Adams is very strong, and United States marshal Walker, fearing Adams would be lynched, took him to Wichita, Mo. April 4 he was found in the hands of Col. Payne, the original Oklahoma boomer, became the leader and champion of the movement. He led several raids on the territory, and on one occasion it took eight troops of cavalry to dislodge him and his companions from their posts, which they had taken part in Tuesday in the celebration of the first anniversary of the opening of the country to settlement.

Adams' End of It.

WICHITA, Kan., April 22.—When J. C. Adams, who shot Capt. Couch, was told his victim was dead he said, as he peered through the bars: "I'm glad of it. I shot to kill him. I went to get back to that country when I got clear and you bet I will live on that claim. I am not afraid of his friends."

THE MCALLA COURT-MARTIAL.

He Will Be Tried for Cruelty While Commanding the Enterprise.

NEW YORK, April 22.—The court-martial of Commander H. McCalla, in charge of the revenue cutter Enterprise of the United States navy, during her last cruise, began Monday morning at the Brooklyn navy yard. Lieut. Perry Goetz is the judge-advocate of the court, assisted by Lieut. William H. Statten of the Marine corps and a number of other naval officers, including Mr. Admiral Hermon. Commander McCalla, accompanied by his command, Joseph H. Chittenden, C. B. Menzies of Cincinnati, was present and was seated at the table prepared for them at the left of the judge-advocate. The court was held in the grand open McCalla made a formal request for permission for Messrs. Goetz and Menzies to act as his counsel.

An Objection from McCalla.

The request was granted and the judge-advocate read the details for the court. He then asked if he objected to any of the members composing the court. McCalla at once responded, "Yes," and named Capt. J. A. B. Hamble, commandant of the revenue cutter Enterprise, on account of prejudice. An objection against the objection was sustained and Capt. B. Hamble was requested to withdraw. The oath was then administered to the court.

The Dog Bled His Own Case.

BOSWELL, Mass., April 22.—Tower, a setter dog belonging to Nathan Simmons, a Capt. Street, only owner, was before Judge Curtis in the municipal court, recently, on trial for his life. The dog bit Helmut Hess, who sued for damages, and demanded that the dog be put to death. He was a very fine dog, and he was a very fine dog. He was a very fine dog. He was a very fine dog.

To Be Paid After Mortgage.

TRUCKEE, Cal., April 22.—Judge Foster, in the First State district court, on application of the Union and Mercantile Trust company of New York, has ordered the sale of the McOmmer, Kansas, and Texas railroad under mortgage, held by the trust company. As the mortgage had been amicably agreed upon the proceedings were merely a form. The court authorized the receivers to borrow on the gauge of the road between Truckee and Defiance, Kan., and to complete the construction of the road between Maxxamilton and Hillsboro, Tex.

Employment Works Burned.

OTTAWA, P. C., April 22.—The King & Hamilton Lumber works, at this place, were destroyed by fire Monday night. The fire started shortly after 10 o'clock, and in less than an hour the entire building, with the exception of the main shop, was destroyed. The works were running in full force, and were heavily stocked with various and farm implements, all of which were destroyed. It is impossible at the present time to correctly estimate the loss. The works were insured for $50,000, and the loss is probably $50,000.

President Grants Skip Out.

MINNEAPOLIS, April 22.—A dispatch from La Crosse, Wis., to the Journal says that W. H. Graves, president of the Farmers' and Merchants' Bank of La Crosse, Wis., has skipped. His wife and child have also gone. It is known that he has been in the bank for some time, and it is expected that an investigation will show a bad state of affairs.

Hill by a Falling Sign.

DENVER, April 22.—While a heavy sign was being lowered on LaRocca street Monday one of the ropes broke letting one end of the sign fall striking Captain Andrew J. Cohen on the head, inflicting injuries that will prove fatal. Cohen is an old war veteran and is well known throughout western railroad circles.

A full corps of engineers in charge of Chief Engineer Foster has commenced a survey of the road from Green Bay to Keweenaw, Wis.

FROM ACROSS THE SEA.

Old World News Notes of General Interest.

DEFICIT IN THE ITALIAN BUDGET.

M. Magliani Says It Will Be 70,000,000 Lire, Which Will Be Met by New Taxation and a Reduction in the Army and Navy Estimates.—A laughable incident in connection with President Carnot's Tour—Emperor William at Bremen.

NAPLES, April 22.—M. Magliani, former minister of finance, in a speech on the financial condition of Italy, declared that the deficit in the budget for the current year would be 70,000,000 lire, and to meet this it would be necessary to raise 30,000,000 lire by new taxation and to reduce by 40,000,000 lire the estimates for the army and navy. He said that the government was determined to meet this deficit by new taxation and by a reduction in the army and navy estimates.

The Social Question.

It was to be hoped that the protectionist policy adopted by Europe would become less rigorous. It was absolutely necessary that Italy should improve her commercial relations with France. As to the social question, M. Magliani praised the initiative taken by the Emperor William; but he declared that the problem must be left to the evolution of economic laws and could not be solved by capricious means.

A LAUGHABLE INCIDENT.

A Servant of M. Carnot Mistaken for the President.

PARIS, April 22.—On the arrival of President Carnot at Toulon an incident occurred at which all France is laughing and which proves that it is wise republic that knows its own president. The president's personal servant has a black beard, and is something like his master in appearance. On the arrival of the train the servant conveyed M. Carnot's luggage by mistake to the special landau which was in waiting to drive the president to the prefecture, and while his master was being welcomed by the officials inside the station he was driven off. The general commanding the troops at the gate, believing the servant to be M. Carnot, saluted and the band struck up the "Marseillaise." The guard of honor then formed and followed the carriage, the crowd shouting "Vive Carnot!" The president was not in the carriage, and the officials were not in the carriage, and the officials were not in the carriage.

The Kaiser Lays a Corner-Stone.

BERLIN, April 22.—Emperor William, in laying the foundation stone at Bremen Monday, said that the monument would be "to the departed a memorial, to the living a reminder, and to the future an example to emulate."

Dr. Moines' New Mayor.

DES MOINES, April 22.—Mayor Campbell and the newly elected officers of this city were inducted into office Monday. After the mayor's inaugural, which was short, he announced the appointment of Robert R. Finkbine and R. L. Chase as members of the board of public works, who, with the mayor as ex-officio members, comprise that body. Mr. Finkbine was appointed mayor of the city, and Mr. Chase was appointed mayor of the city. The council confirmed all three of these appointments. The council then elected R. B. D. Smith clerk and Dr. Matthews city physician. R. C. Johnson was elected chief of the fire department.

He Died Penitent.

EAU CLAIRE, Wis., April 22.—Andy Hamilton, for years the keeper of one of the worst dance dens in this section, died of pulmonary consumption. He was recently liberated from Waupun penitentiary after serving a sentence of fifteen months for a case of debt. His place has been closed of late. He was given the last offices by an Episcopal clergyman. He said he died penitent, and begged forgiveness. His funeral will be held in the Episcopal church.

Vandals at Lincoln's Monument.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 22.—Rioting broke out Monday night in Springfield, Mo., over the Lincoln monument. It has been decided to erect a large iron fence around it to prevent it being entirely carried away. Visitors will be allowed to view the monument only during special hours. Large forces have been broken up, and the city is now quiet. The vandals are being sought, and it is expected that they will be caught.

A Grand Jury's Action Discredited.

NEW YORK, April 22.—District Attorney Fellows asked Monday morning before Recorder Smyth and Judge Cowley for the dismissal of a grand jury which had indicted the late Mayor of New York, Wm. P. Kelly, and Thomas Shields, well-known members of the board of aldermen of 1884. The motion for a dismissal was asked for on the ground that there never was sufficient evidence to justify the indictment. The motion was granted.

A Good Way to Settle It.

ROCK ISLAND, Ill., April 22.—The $10,000 breach of promise suit of Ann Dunning against Assessor John Barge, which has been the talk of the town for the past few weeks, was settled Monday by Mr. Barge taking out a license to marry the woman. Mr. Barge's first acquaintance with his prospective bride was when she was a scrub woman at the court house.

Ladies on the Board.

WARREN, Ill., April 22.—For the first time in the history of Warren at the last school election three ladies were chosen on the board of education under the new law. Following are the names of the successful candidates: Mrs. J. H. Carr, Mrs. Robert Hawley, Mrs. B. A. Clark, Ed. Stothower, W. Stokely and John Bird, with Dr. A. F. Buckman as president.

Drowned in the City Reservoir.

FITCHBURGH, Mass., April 22.—The body of ex-Mayor Eli Culley was found in the reservoir at 2 o'clock Tuesday morning. He disappeared Monday night. Mr. Culley had been ill some time, and his mind was affected. He was 60 years old and leaves a widow and six children. He was mayor four years and a member of the legislature in 1880.

Beat the Record.

CINCINNATI, O., April 22.—Jake Schaefer, the billiardist, beat the record at the fourteen-inch ball game in this city in a contest with Ives. He made 890 points in four innings, making an average of 73. His best record heretofore made by him was an average of 60. Schaefer's highest run Monday was 160.

An African Traveler Married.

NEW YORK, April 22.—Herbert Ward, the African traveler, was married Monday night to Miss Sarah Sanford. The couple will sail for Europe on Wednesday.

DISASTER ON THE RAIL.

A Train on the St. Louis, Arkansas and Texas Road Ditched. CAIRO, Ill., April 22.—The north-bound passenger train on the St. Louis, Arkansas and Texas railroad was ditched near Hibbard, eighteen miles below here, and six of the twenty-three passengers were injured, but none fatally. An unlocked switch was the cause. The mail, baggage, and express cars and two coaches left the rails and turned over by their sides into a pool of water about two feet deep. A construction gang near by succeeded in quenching the fire, which broke out in a passenger coach.

The List of Victims.

The injured were: Mrs. J. M. Hubbard, of Bohard, Mo.; Grissell, son of Mrs. Hubbard, 9 years old, foot mangled; Mrs. J. M. Parks, Carl Orbeard, wife, of St. Louis, Ill., an aged couple, badly bruised; sister-in-law of J. W. Fox, the division superintendent of the road, nearly suffocated by smoke, but unhurt; daughter of Mrs. Hubbard, 3 years old, narrowly escaped drowning, being rescued by Miss Kate Parks, who dashed into the water, and rescued the child. A baby-lain brought the passengers, mail, baggage, and express matter to this city at noon.

A LITTLE TOO MUCH BOOM.

Big Sale of Southern Industrial Plants to Satisfy a Mortgage. BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 22.—A special to the Ag-Herald from Huntsville, Ala., says: The largest sale that ever occurred in this county took place Monday at the courthouse. The property sold consisted of three blast furnaces at Sheffield, Ala., and the large tracts of mineral land and mineral rights in Walker, Winston, Payette and Marion counties, Ala., consisting of about 70,000 acres, which were bought by National City Bank, of New York, for $3,500,000, also over 4,000 acres of mineral rights and coking coal lands in Walker and Jefferson counties, Ala., which were bought by J. C. Neely, of Memphis, for $115,000.

There Is $1,398,000 Yet to Pay.

These properties were sold to satisfy a mortgage of the Central Trust company, of New York, made to secure $1,000,000 of bonds of the Sheffield and Birmingham Coal, Iron, and Railway company, of which $1,398,000, with coupons attached, remain unpaid. The railway part of the property, consisting of the Birmingham and Sheffield railway, was not included in the sale, and was separated from the other properties of the company, not being subject to debts.

He Had Three Wives.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, April 22.—Dr. J. West was arrested Saturday on a charge of bigamy, brought by his first wife, who is a widow, and who is now in jail. Dr. West is a native of Utah, and is a practicing physician. He is 55 years old, and his second wife, Jane Everett, is 21. West at first said he believed his first wife died when he married Miss Everett. Later he said it was a black-and-white scheme. Last Monday afternoon another woman put an appearance with strong claims of being wife No. 3. She is now with the doctor, and she is now with the doctor, and she is now with the doctor.

Let Him In a Month.

Not long ago he married his sixth wife, and she left him within a month. With all his children he was a man of unblemished reputation and unquestioned integrity. If he said he would do a thing he did it every time. He was born nearly into a bow, shuffled along the sidewalks, had an extremely long nose and wore steel spectacles that rested on his very tip. He dearly loved a controversy, and it was a rash scholar that tackled him on Bible lore.

FATAL MINING ACCIDENT.

Two Men Killed and Five Others Seriously Injured. ASHLAND, Wis., April 22.—Capt. William Hooper and another man were killed and five others seriously injured by an accident in the Great Western mine near Norway. The men were in the shaft when by some mistake the cage above was moved while a car was being run upon it. The result was a shower of heavy rocks and timbers, which fell upon the heads of the men below.

A Catholic Priest Silenced.

WATERLOO, N. Y., April 22.—Bishop Walliams has silenced Father Peter J. H. Ryan of St. Peter's Roman Catholic church, Lowville, N. Y., and suspended him from priestly office on account of acts unbecoming a priest. The chief complaint against him was to his method of assessing the rate of a gas and extorting money from them. The trouble was brought to a climax a few Sundays ago when the priest's denials upon a lady member of the congregation for her share of a certain assessment was refused. Father Ryan became angry, struck her in the face with a prayer book, and used language unbecoming a priest.

Stopped the Wedding.

SALISBURY, Md., April 22.—Henry Laccato, a jeweler who formerly resided here, and Miss Victoria Wright, were standing at the altar of a church, about to be married, when an old lady rushed in and dangled the number 1 letter which was read aloud. It related to be the wife of Laccato, who resides with her three children at Maplesburg, Va. When the minister finished reading the letter the would-be bride fell in a swoon and Laccato left the church and disappeared.

Boles Will Reappoint Her.

DES MOINES, Iowa, April 22.—Governor Boies has decided to reappoint M. S. Mary A. Miller, present state librarian. Mrs. Miller is a strong Republican. Her husband was a soldier who died about eight years after the war ended. Quite a number of good Democratic women were applicants for the place, some of whom were splendidly qualified, and of whose competency there was no question.

Arrest of a Swindler.

WHEATLAND, Cal., 22.—Detective Bradshaw, of Iowa, has arrested Aaron Smith, of Des Moines, Iowa, on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. Smith is charged with having sold the same livestock to four different parties in Des Moines. He received $1,100 discount on the notes given him in payment, and with this funds brought his family to this state.

Theodore Thomas to Wed.

NEW YORK, April 22.—Theodore Thomas left for Chicago Monday night, and on May 12 he will be married to Miss Rosa Fay, sister of Amy Fay, one of Liszt's favorite pupils. Mr. Thomas is a widower of 54, his first wife having died two years ago. Miss Fay is about 30. She is decidedly musical in her tastes.

There Was No Fight.

LOUISVILLE, April 22.—Court has adjourned at Harlan Court House, and the state troops are on their way to their homes. They arrived at Pineville Monday. Capt. Gaither, in command, says there was no fight. The troops did go to hunt Wils Howell, but could not find him.

RIOUTOUS STRIKERS.

Attack on Non-Union Carpenters in Chicago.

FIFTY OF THE RIOTERS ARRESTED.

Sergeant Begley, While Trying to Quell the Trouble, Is Attacked with Clubs and Stones by the Strikers and Seriously Injured—A Patrol Wagon Loaded with Officers Finally Puts the Mob to Flight and Work Is Resumed. CHICAGO, April 22.—Tuesday morning a number of non-union carpenters went to work on some half finished cottages near Fifty-third and Wallace streets. Shortly after a crowd of union carpenters appeared and attempted to induce them to quit. They were deaf to all argument. About 11 o'clock the crowd had increased to nearly 100 men, and they attempted to force the union men to quit. One of them resisted and was badly beaten. At this juncture Sergeant Begley, who lives near, saw the commotion and went to the scene and attempted to arrest the fighting strikers. They at once turned on him, and he also was badly beaten with clubs and stones.

Fifty Arrests Made.

During the fight the police station had been notified and a patrol wagon with eight officers was dispatched to the scene. By the time they arrived the strikers were in flight. The patrol pursued them and succeeded in capturing about 50 of them, who were marched to the station of Englewood and locked up. Sergeant Begley was found to be badly injured and was taken to his home. The non-union men were put back to work and are now guarded by the police. The greatest excitement prevails and more trouble is feared.

A UNIQUE CHARACTER.

Decrease of a Man of Many Peccardities and Wives.

NEW YORK, April 22.—Hiram Smith, a unique resident of Norwich, Conn., died on Sunday, aged seventy six years. He was an expert mechanic, and invented the window blind staple cutter, by which he made a fortune for himself and C. B. Rogers & Co., of this city, for whom he had worked for the past fifty years. He was a notable atheist and a well-to-do man, who had no religious faith. One of his poems on "The Creation" was as long as "The Lord's Prayer" and in the Homeric vein. He had the longest feet in Norwich, and had been divorced more times than any other citizen.
